

I registered for the NJ Do Not Call list as soon as it became available, and we are enjoying the benefits of no annoying calls during dinner or other family time. Please do not invalidate the law. People get enough junk mail and junk e-mail; we are too busy to also have to deal with junk phone calls. While I appreciate the need for telemarketers to make a living, I appreciate more my right to have them leave me alone.